

PROXY APPOINTMENT FORM

Who can appoint a proxy?

Pursuant to section 37 of the College bylaws, a registrant who is eligible to vote in the election* may appoint in writing another registrant as his or her proxy holder to vote in the election or attend and act at the general meeting in the manner, to the extent, and with the power conferred by the proxy. A proxy holder has the same rights as the registrant who appointed him or her to vote in the election or speak at the general meeting.

How do I appoint a proxy?

Complete the form below and ensure that your proxy holder holds no more than one (1) other registrant's proxy. Under section 37(7) of the College's bylaws, a registrant may hold a maximum of two (2) proxies for any election or general meeting.

Deadline

A proxy must be received by the College at least twenty-four (24) hours before the date of the election or general meeting for which it is executed. Please submit your proxy form by email to office@cnpsc.bc.ca before 2:00 p.m. on Friday, May 22, 2015.

* Pursuant to section 4 of the College bylaws, only full or non-practising registrants in good standing are eligible to vote.

PROXY APPOINTMENT

I, Dr. _____, ND am unable to attend the annual general meeting of the College of Naturopathic Physicians of British Columbia on Saturday, May 23, 2015.

In accordance with the election procedure of the CNPBC, I hereby designate my proxy holder pursuant to section 37 of the CNPBC bylaws.

I appoint Dr. _____, ND as my proxy holder to vote in the election at the 2015 AGM.

Dated this _____ day of _____, 2015.

Registrant's Signature